Want to retire early? You'll need at least $5 million, more likely $10 million, says famous financial personality Suze Orman. I should know. She said that to me, directly, on my podcast. I asked Suze for her opinion about a frugal, flexible person who wants to retire early with a $2 million portfolio. She warned that retiring would be a massive mistake. The following is a list of episodes for the NBC sitcom Night Court series aired from January 4, 1984 to May 31, 1992 during 9 seasons with 193 episodes produced. Hello folks! A key question on many early retirees' minds is investment drawdown strategies. Even the great Nobel laureate William Sharpe has been contemplating retirement planning lately (more to come on that in future posts). As a matter of fact, Mr. Sharpe said decumulation is the "nastiest, hardest problem in finance" to tackle which is saying something considering Mr. Sharpe was the President 'ordered Michael Cohen to lie to Congress about the extent of his involvement in Moscow Trump Tower project and wanted to visit Putin during 2016 campaign to help negotiations. Wait another 10-20 years and Grace will hold the cards since Kevin will be no heartthrob anymore and she will still be relatively young. These last two articles have focused on how common it is for early retirees to continue making money after they say goodbye to the cubicle. I share stories like that because I've seen it happen in so many lives, including my own.
